Conférence Européenne sur l'Histoire de l'Automobile

First Pan-European Conference for Automotive History

organised jointly by the Society of Automotive Historians

in Britain and the

Automobil-Historische Gesellschaft e.V.,

Germany

Supported and hosted by:

CITÉ DE L'AUTOMOBILE
MUSÉE NATIONAL - COLLECTION SCHLUMPF

Mulhouse, Alsace, France

26-28 May 2017

Provisional programme:

The AHG and the SAHB are proud to invite you to their first joint European conference for automotive history, to be held in the Cité de l'Automobile, 15 Rue de l'Épée, 68100 Mulhouse, France, from 26-28 May 2017, with invitations extended to AISA (Italy), AHA (Australia), CONAM (The Netherlands), the SAH (USA), as well as other interested organisations and individuals. To further international discourse, it is the aim of the conference that presentations will cover subjects which have a cross-border European interest.

The provisional programme is as follows:

Friday 26 May, arrival, informal dinner in the Hotel Bristol (at delegate's own cost).

Saturday 27 May, conference in the museum starting at 9am, with a break for lunch, followed by evening dinner in the museum (both meals are included in the conference fee of €100).

Presentations can be expected from a wide range of speakers from different countries, including:

Richard Keller, Cité de l'Automobile: An Introduction to the Museum and the Schlumpf Collection.

Fons Alkemade, CONAM: European Co-operation at a Difficult Time: Spyker and Maybach, 1920.

Christopher Balfour, SAHB: Personal Experiences Relating to the Decline of the British-Owned Motor Industry.

John Barton, SAHB: The Last Bugattis from Molsheim.

Anders Ditlev Clausager, SAHB: The "Dumping" of German Cars in Britain in 1937.

Francis Clax, SAH: The History of Motometers.

Oliver Heal, SAHB: Louis Coatalen, a Breton Designer in England.

Guy Loveridge, SAHB: The 1950 F1 World Championship and the European GP at Silverstone.

Peter Moss, SAHB: What Lies Beneath: Some Surprises Under the Bonnet.

Frederik Scherer, SAHB: Aesthetics and Design of Motoring Books.

Thomas Ulrich, AHG: An Early European Adventure, The Paris-Vienna Race of 1902.

Claus Wulff, AHG: Making their Marques: Historic Radiator Emblems.

Aldo Zana, AISA: to be confirmed.

Sunday 28 May, depending on demand, there may be additional presentations in the morning, followed by lunch, and the option of a visit to another museum in the afternoon (lunch and excursion at delegate's own cost).

Presentations should preferably be made in English. Accompanying Powerpoint captions should as far as possible be in more than one language.

Please note that the programme of presentations is subject to change, there may be alternative or additional presentations. The organisers reserve the right to cancel any part of the programme.

ACCOMMODATION

Rooms have provisionally been reserved in the Hotel Bristol, 18 Avenue de Colmar, 68100 Mulhouse, France tel. +33 (0)3 89 42 12 31.

The provisional cost for bed and breakfast, from Friday to Sunday, is €75 for a single room per night, and €86 for a double room per night. Hotel accommodation must be booked and paid for by delegates individually. Please book directly with the hotel, by telephone/letter/e-mail (but NOT from other non-hotel websites) quoting booking code "Ulrich". Extra nights can be booked as required.
